

LEARN HOW TO LEAD AND EMPOWER YOUR CHURCH AND COMMUNITY

MINNERY FELLOWSHIP

FOR CULTURAL ENGAGEMENT

A Continuing Cultural Education Program for Pastors and Church Leaders

The Minnery Fellowship for Cultural Engagement is an ongoing Continuing Cultural Education program to provide opportunities for pastors and elders to dive into the practical issues facing Christians in culture and develop, with a cohort of their peers, biblical strategies and messages to respond.

The Cleveland Cohort will begin monthly meetings on Friday, January 31, from 12:00 to 2:00 pm, at the Union Club in Cleveland. The deadline to apply for the Minnery Fellowship Cleveland cohort is Tuesday, December 31.

Pastor Austin Shaw, of Providence Church in Avon, will serve as the Cleveland cohort facilitator. He received his theological education in England, earning a master's degree and a PhD in Church History from the University of Oxford, and holds a fellowship in the Center for Pastor Theologians, a group of church leaders committed to the interface of theology and local church ministry.

APPLY NOW:

CCV.org/MinneryFellowship

CHURCH
AMBASSADOR
NETWORK

A Ministry of Center for Christian Virtue

Center
FOR Christian
Virtue

CCV.org/CAN

FAQs

How much does the Minnery Fellowship cost?

Thanks to a generous grant from the Dalton Foundation, there is no out-of-pocket expense to participate.

How much time is required?

Participants should plan to invest two hours per month to attend the cohort meeting, plus approximately 15 minutes per day of self-study.

What will I study?

The Spring 2025 session will focus on Biblical Cultural Engagement utilizing select chapters of Biblical Critical Theory by Dr. Christopher Watkin.